ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENTS intended for publication in THE NEWS must, in all cuses, be paid

ADMITTED TO THE BAR .- A late San Francisco paper contains the following statement of a former Charlestonian: "Yesterday, Henry Deas, Jr., formerly of South Carolina, on motion of ex-Judge E. D. Sawyer, and production of a license by the Court of Appea's of that State, was admitted to practice law in all the courts of Call

SPANISH GUNBOATS .- Five of these boats, we learn from the Beaufort Republican, built expressly for the Cuban war, are expected shortly to coal at Beanfort. A ship is now on the way from the North with a cargo for this special purpose and will be landed at Battery Point wharf, from whence it will be taken by this mosquito fleet. Last year they coaled in this city.

WAR OF THE AMAZONS .- Emma Green and Nancy Small, two colored girls, were quarrelling in Market, near State street, and, coming to blows, the latter had fier head severely punched. She called the police, and Emma being arrested. was sentenced to pay a fine of $5, or spend five days in the House of Correction. At the trial, however, Nancy was found to be more to blame of the two, and was forthwith turned over to a trial justice for prosecution.

FIRE AT WHITEHALL .- Sunday morning last the store of J. Stern & Co, located at Whitehall, on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, with its contents, was totally destroyed. The confiagration was the work of an incendiary without ques tion. The occupants did not retire until after 2 P. M., Sunday morning, and at that hour all was safe. The loss on the store and contents is not far from $10,000, which, we learn, was in-

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY .- Friday evening. while walking down Vanderhorst street, Mr. H. Burckmeyer, when near King street, was attacked and bitten by a good-sized vellow cur dog, belonging to Mr. R. C. Miller. The matter was reported at the Guardhouse, and the dog was duly incarcerated. At the trial on Saturday, before the Mayor, it was decided by all to kill the dog. and a pistol shot soon after put an end to his bit ing career.

THE ADGER LINE.—The immense patronage enjoyed by this elegantly inanaged and superior steam line is truly surprising, and the endless lines of drays and vehicles which keep up a steady stream towards them is quite a sight to look at. The James Adger, Captain T. J. Lockwood, left for New York on Saturday, and had more than her usual complement of custom, the freight space being packed with noxes and packages, and all the available places occupied by passeng ers. On her long freight list was about five thousand packages of Charleston vegetables.

A PERSEVERING DETECTIVE .- One of the indefatigable guardians of the city ordinances, a few days ago, followed a drummer from store to store on East Bay street, and at last, feeling sure of his game, came up like the heathen Chinee, with a smile, &c., saying, "You have been offering goods for sale." "I have." "You have sold four bills." "I have." "Very well, I arrest you." "Had not you better find out whether I have a licease?" With that he pulled out the Mayor's exequatur, and detective wilted, and just then remembered that he had some pressing business

35M LY .- The General Assembly of the "Presbyterian Church in the United States," (not of America,) otherwise known as the Southern Presbyterian Assembly, or the "Declaration and Testimony Presbyterian Assembly," convened in Hantsville, Ala., on the 18th instant. The first two days were occupied with an exhaustive de a bate on the subject of education, the committee to which it was referred having recommended that steps be taken to create a fund for the purpose of "establishing one great university" under the Suspices of the church. The temper of the assembly is represented as less sectional than

SUPREME COURT-COLUMBIA, May 26 .- The court met at 10 A. M. Present-Chief Justice Moses, and Associate Justices Willard and Wright.

Torace Massot vs. O. A. Moses, et al. Mr. ment for appellants. Mr. Lord was heard for re-Charles R. Brewster vs. Henry Williams. Mr.

Spratt was heard for appellants. Mr. Lord for re-A. T. Stewart & Co. vs. Charles Kerrison, trus-

THE MAGAZINES. - The Rural Carolinian for June come to us from the publishers, Walker, Evans & Cogswell, and is as fresh, practical and interesting as ever. It contains the following articles: "American Sumac and Sumac Mills," (!liustrated,) "More about Hill-side Hedging.", "Cotton in Hills," "Is the South a Stock Country?" "On the Possibility of Forecasting the Seasons," "The Potash Salts of Strassfurt," "The Utility and Preservation of Trees," . The Department of Natural History, (iliustrated.)

From Fogar:le's Book Depository we have re ceived the Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature for Jane; also the southern Magazine for June-both capital numbers.

arsiclass iron British ship Remington, captain J. F. Fowler, was cleared on Saturday from this port for L'verpool by Mr. Henry Card. The Rem ng ton has on board the following varied and valuable cargo, viz: 338 bags sea Island cotton, 2943 bales unland cotton, 100 tons copper ore, 80 tons phosphate rock, 1113 bags cotton seed, 5 bales and 4 bundles paimetto leaves the whole weighing George R. Walker, City; Myron Arnold, Montre-1.924.670 pounds, and valued at $231.544, on a draft of 15 feet 11 inches aft and 15 leet 7 inches T.B. Clotworthy, New York; John S. Green, Coforward. Captain Fowier, who is a thorough seaman and shipmaster, is also a true Briton, and on the Queen's birthday, a short time back, had his noble ship richly adorned with a handsome display of bunting.

CLUBS AND STARS .- Cæsar Mitchell, lodged on the charge of robbing the sloop George Washington of everal pieces of her tackle, was turned over to a trial justice.

Mary Jane Cross, arrested for being drunk and raising a disturbance in Elliott street, was sen. tenced to pay a fine of ten dollars or go to the House of Correction for twenty days. George W. Brown, taken up for disturbing the neighborhood at the corner of State and Queen streets, while airing his rhetoric, was discharged J. G. Dupre, lodged for lying down drunk in the street, was sent to the Almshouse. Two other individuals, who succumbed under the combined influence of the warm weather and mean whiskey, and were sleeping peacefully on the sidewalk, were taken to the lockup, and discharged next morning on the plea of this having been the first offence.

THE CITY ELECTION.

The Right Men in the Right Place-Independent Conservative Ticket for Mayor and Aldermen.

Ward No. 6-A. SIMONDS, H. B. OLNEY.

Ward No. 8-WILLIAM TRENHOLM. The above names are submitted to the Citizens of Charleston as proper persons to redeem the city from her present depressed financial condition.

Ward No. 7-F. J. PELZER.

No money will be used in advocating this ticket. It is put before the community upon the known merits of the parties named. No consultation has been had with any one of these gentlemen, and we feel assured that none of them desire the position, but we feel equally confident that none of them will decline to serve our city in her present emergency.

HIGH SCHOOL.-The Rev. C. C. Pinckney was elected chairman of the board of supervisors of the High School on Friday last. The position be came vacant by the death of Richard Yeadon, Esq., who had filled that office for a number of vears.

FOR NEW YORK ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON AT HALF-PAST 5 O'CLOCK. -The magnificent from steamship Georgia, Sidney Crowell, commander is appointed to sail on Tuesday afternoon, at half. past 5 o'clock, and will doubtless attract to her palace-deck sta erooms a large number of passengers. The freight offerings promise to be large in cotton, rice, rosin, &c., but the agents propose to reserve the well ventilated between decks expressly for the accommodation of shippers of truck, which will be received up to the hour of sailing.

A MONSTER. SHARK .- Saturday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, the usual shoating at the he ad-of North Atlantic wharf announced "a bite," and in a few moments everybody in the neighborhood was hurrying to the wharf. Two or three colored men had hold of the line, which came in so easily after the first tug, that all imagined the shark had got away. When near the wharf, the shark began to see through it, and, turning round, he ran out wit : tremendous force to the end of the line. After performing this feat twice, against the untted strength of several men, he was steadily hauled up to the top of the water; and with a couple of books in his mouth, and a noose around als tail, was speedily hoisted upon the wharf. He proved to be a fine specimen of the "Carcharus oulgaris, and measures eleven feet two and a half nches from his snout to the end of his tall. The nouth and laws were large, and armed with several rows of sharp saw teeth. Upon an anatomi, cal investigation, the voracious monster was found to contain several large king craos, numerous pleces of bone, and a mass of dark hair, pronounced to be that of a human being. This shark lacks but a few inches of being as long as the one caught at this wharf last year, which was the argest caught in the harbor since the war.

THE PHORIM TO GOTHAM .- Major Samuel Dickerson though elected by the Radicals of Ward 6 as a delegate to their approaching city convention, declines to serve, and this is said to be his first step in carrying out an intention of withdrawing from public life. During the past five years, the gallant major disported in the leld of politics, occasionally relaxing his mind in a game of draw-roker, and rising steadily, if not in public, certainly in his own estimation, and reaching the top of the ladder, when he became the subject of the poker letter of the New York Sun correspondent. Soon after he started on a lecturing tour to the North, but finding the climate of the New York Tombs not conducive to his health, he incontinently returned to the more congenial atmosphere at the corner of Meeting THE SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL AS- and Broad streets, in Charleston. Sam became disgusted with politics when he saw the flagrant disregard of the civil rights bill by the hotel and barkeepers of Gotham, where the sable lecturer found out the hollowness of Northern professions. and whence he returned sick in soul. After the quicksands and "moral precipices" at Columbia, the major is still said to preserve "that sentiment of Republicanism which has governed his actions for five years."

PIVALLING BILLINGSGATE .-- Broad street, near the old Postoffice presented an exciting seene Saturday m ruing, and was enlivened with a wordy war between a notorious major of the 'Corps d'Afrique' and a well known member of the honorable corps of trial justices. These two prominent Radical-, to the surprise of every one, and quarrelled, and the trate major, fresh from the Tombs, poured upon his antagonist an avaanche of elequence, which he had not learned at Sunday school, but which sustained his extraordinary reputation as a Railical orator and lecturer. His judicial opponent was evidently mindful of the law of assault and battery, and while he spared the major's feelings for the present, as far as his cane was concerned, promised, with all the face of a county reasurer, unheardof canings and thrashings for "the next time he did that." The major, after several attempts, found that the next time, like to-morrow, could never be reached, and having extensied his vocabulary of curses and abusive spitates, went his way. There was a mysterious rumor saest afterwards that the public had not yet heard the end of this affair. As neither of the parties have been bound over to tasp-the peace, fearful de vel penents may be expected this morating. Caneand eaffee, or pistels and potate pone; Who valuable setter dog belonging to Mr. Bissell was run over by a street car, in Meeting street, near Market, and so badly injured that, from motives of humanity, his master ordered him to be shot.

INQUEST. - Coroner Taft held an inquest yesterday morning, on Atlantic wharf, over the body of a colored child named Rebecca Wilson, who and died suddenly on the preceding night. The jury found that the death was caused by exposure and neglect.

CHEAP SPANISH CIGARS .- Pedro Cabrero and Carlos Sorii were brought before Commissioner Porteons Saturday morning and examined on the charge of selling Havana cigars without paying the revenue duties. The prisoners were arrested while offering what they called imported Spanish cigars for $5 per hundred The samples found in their possession were tried by experts, who decided that they were not Havana cigars, and the esse was for hwith dismissed.

PATRONS OF MUSBANDRY .- This is the name of a secret order of farmers, established in 1867, for the benefit of the agriculturist throughout the country. The executive committee of the "National Grange" has its seat in Washington, with general deputies in the different States. D. H. Jacques, Esq., editor of the Rural Carolinian, is the general deputy for this State, and W. E. Simmone, Jr., Esq., is special deputy for Charleston. Through his exertion a lodge has been organized in this city, known as "Ashley Grange," Dr. A. B. Rose, master. Ladies, as well as gentlemen, are eligible to membership in the Grange. We doubt not that before long the order will count many adherents in this city and State.

PRACTICE OF THE SUMTER RIFLE CLUB.—This popular corps, whose new rifles had just been distriunted among them on the preceding evening, went across the river to Mount Pleasant, on Saturday afternoon, to try their guns with a little target practice. The excursionists left between 3 and 4 o'clock on the Mount Pleasant steamer, and the "Lawn" was soon covered with riflemen. The targets were placed on the edge of the water, about 125 yards off, and the shooting was soon commenced. This continued until late in the evening, when the party returned to the city on the last boat. The best average shooting was done by Mr. George Gaillard, who won a heavy silver spoon, and the next best by the president, Mr. George H. Moffett, who won a pool which had been made up for the occasion.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT. - Saturday morning a party of boys from the Epscopal Parochial School, organized by the Rev. A. Toomer Porter, went across Ashley River to Mr. Frampton's place, a short distance up Wappoo Creek, for the purpose of getting plums. They landed at the watering tank, and during the day several of the boys climbed to the windlass of the pump, which is placed some fifteen feet from the ground for the purpose of filling the tank, and began to work it. While thus engaged, the crank flew out of their hands, and struck a youth named Arthur Simkens in the head. He fell to the flooring beneath, and his leg being thrust between two planks, was theken about the middle of the thigh by the violence of the fall. The unfortunate sufferer was borne by his companions to the boat, and rowed over to Savannah and Charleston Railroad wharf, whence he was quickly taken home. The fimb was speedily set by a skilful surgeon, and the patient is now doing well.

RES GNATION NOT ACCEPTED. -Some time ago Mr. J. C. Leahy, probate judge of Newberry County, received notice from the Ku-Klux, it was said to resign his office. Thereupon Mr. Leahy at once left for Columbia, and tendered his resignation to the Governor, alleging as the reason for this step, that he is fully convinced that his life is in iminent danger, and that he is "not receiving the protection which the government should extend to each and every citizen." This petition was accompanied by a letter to the Governor, signed by the entire bar of Newberry, stating that Mr. Leahy who had most faithfully discharged the duties of his important and responsible office to up the present time, had addressed a letter to them, expressing his desire to resign the same; that if the Governor should see fit to accept the resignation, the office with its important papers and records would be left without a custodian They therefore ask the Governor to appoint Mr. John T. Peterson, formerly ordinary of that county, till the office should be filled by a new election. The Governor, in answering the letter of the bar, just mentioned, says that he cannot and will not accept a resignation tendered under such circum-

THE MILLS HOUSE .- The summer season is aiways a trying one to a hotel enterprise in a Southern city, especially in Charleston, which may be regarded as a sort of half-way house en route to Florida. Those who have sojourned in the latter State during the winter make their way homeward in the month of May, white the permanent guests of a hotel scek recreation with other citizens among the cosy shades of the Northern watering places. Charleston, consequently, for three or four months, becomes more or less dull, and local industries suffer proportionately. Under these circumstances : was reported, inadvertently, perhaps, that the proprietors of the Mills House would for a time entirely close that establishment. We are happy to announce however, that such is not the fact. On the centrary, the hotel will not only be kept open in its usual style, but unusual inducements in the way of reduced prices are off-red to individuals and to families to make arrangements for their summer board. Single gentlemen, especially, will find it to their advantage to live at the Mills House, while families will save the expense and trouble of housekeeping and yet be foot-loose for the purposes of travel an enjoyment. As will be seen by reference to our special notices, the price of hoard has been reduced to three dollars a day during the summer months.

Dog Gone, Bad Luck - Last evening a ATLANTA CITY BONDS. - The general favor with which the introduction of these unexceptionable securities have met upon our market-$10,000 having been disposed of as soon as offer ed-has induced Mr. A. C. Kaufman to place a few more at the disposal of investors.

To give an idea of the extensive railroad traffic of this section of the country, a traffic which has built up this r-markable city and made it the centre of the railroad system South, we would mention that the income of the Georgia Railroad. 171 miles long, running from Atlanta to Augusta for the year 1870, was about $1,400,000. The stock of this road paying 8 per cent. dividends, regular ly commands $103 to 110 per share, and the 7 per cent. bonds 95 to par. The income of the Macon and Western Railroad, 102 miles in length, running from Atlanta to Macon, was about $600,000. This stock sells from $105 to $110, and paya divi dends of 8 per cent. The stock of these roads are rarely offered and always in demand. The Western and Atlantic Railroad, running from Atlanta Ga., to Chattanooga, Tenn., 138 miles long, shows an increase of about $1,300,000. The Atlanta and Richmond Air Line Railroad, now in process o construction, whose termini are Atlanta and Charlotte, N. C., will form a most important link in the through connection between the North and South. There are how about two thousand laborers employed upon this road, and it is expected to be fini hed at an early day. Their first mortgage 8 per cent. bonds, now being negotiated by Messrs. Lancaster, Brown & Co., of New York, are so rapidly taken up that they have recently advanced the price from $85 to $90, and only a limited number for sale at that figure. This road will be 225 miles long, and its bonded debt $18,000 to the mile.

We have mentioned these facts to show the confrience of capitalists in investments in this section, and to reassert our position that the City of Atlanta bonds will vie favorably with any security either North or South, and unhesitatingly commend them to the attention of parties in search of safe, permanent and profitable investments. The interest on these bonds is payable next July.

The Directors of the CHARLESTON CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION, for the Benefit of the Free School Fund, having compiled with the terms of their Charter, and paid over to J. K. JILLSON. State Superintendent of Education of South Carolina, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the annual payment of the School Fund under the Charter, (the receipt being hereto appended,) have inaugurated a system of Insurance Certificates which is surrounded by every degree of fairness, and swill be Raffied for twice a day, at Twelve M. and Five P. M., in public, under the superintendence of Capitain FENN PEOK, a sworn Commissioner.

The advantages of this system are, that the purchasers can have the choice of their own numbers anywhere from No. 1 to No. 78, and the privilege of limiting or increasing their investments at pleasure. The Schedule of Rates adopted by the Company or from any venders, Every Raffie that lakes place is classed and numbered on the Company's Official Books, and takes place twice a day, as follows:

Numbers printed on Cubes from No. 1 to No. 78, are placed (in public) by the Sworn Commissioner in a Class Raffie Gylinder and are well shaken. A boy blindfolded takes one of these Oabes which is skinbitted to the spectators and declared to be and is recorded as the first Raffied number. The Raffie Gylinder will then be revolved, and the boy again takes out another number, which is similarly exhibited to the spectators and recorded as the second Raffie number. This operation will be recorded on the Official Books of the Company in the order in which it is taken in the Raffie. These Twelve numbers are Raffied out of the Gylinder, and each number will be recorded on the Official Books of the Company in the order in which it is taken in the Raffie. These Twelve numbers are taken in the Raffied on the Nich it is taken in the Raffie. These Twelve numbers are taken in the Raffied all the AWARDS OF CERTIFICATE to the successful OEKTIFICATE HOLDER.

EXPLANATION OF THE CERTIFICATE AWARDS.
